Additional Bigelow News.

—Mrs. Mary Ford is in Preston, Neb., this week, visiting with her son, Orville Ford and family.

—Mrs. W. M. Whaley was down from Maitland, several days, last week, visiting with relatives.

—Mrs. Art Stuart received word Tuesday morning that her father was quite sick at Gayman, Okla., and she left on the evening train for that place.

—Miss Nellie Williams was visiting with relatives in Maryville, Mo., several days, last week, returning home the latter part of last week. Her cousin, Miss Eva Williams, accompanied her for a short visit.

—Mrs. M. B. Williams visited with friends in Mound City over Sunday.

—H. M. Spillman, the first of the week, received a three-wheeled plow for use with his new tractor. Mr. Spillman is figuring on using the tractor for all kinds of work on the farm, and says the tractor never gets tired like the horse.

—Ralph Graham is here this week from St. Louis, visiting with home folks and renewing old acquaintances. Ralph and his brother, Paul, have responsible positions with one of the largest boot and shoe manufacturers in the city of St. Louis, and have many friends here who are glad to see them making good.

—With Miss Vera Ballenger as chaperon, Misses Hazel Miller, Jenny Riley, Elizabeth Breidenbach, Helen Frazier, Hazel Benham, Gladys Colwell, Bertha Glenn, Martha Little and Lauretta Little, of Tarkio, are occupying "Dew Drop Inn" cottage, at the lake, this week, fishing, boating, bathing and having a general good time. This is sure a jolly bunch of girls and they are enjoying the outing very much.

—Milt Randall and wife left last Sunday morning for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where they expect to make their home with one of their sons, Uncle Milt, as he was more familiarly known, will be missed by almost every one in town. Although blind, he made his way about town just the same as one who could see. He sold papers to almost every one in town, and would make the deliveries without making any mistakes.

—Workmen began Tuesday morning tearing down the old lumber yard building, which was built in 1902 by Geo. W. Poynter and A. W. Channing, who conducted a lumber yard there for about five years when they sold out to Lot Brown & Son, and the business continued under their management until about five years ago, when the business was discontinued on account of the demand not being heavy enough to justify maintaining a yard at this point. This was an extra well built yard and cost about $2,000.00. It is reported that the building has been sold to Jacob Closs, of Mound City, who will move it to Mound City, where it will be used by the Mound City Mill Co.

—Mother Haigler celebrated her 85th birthday, July 8th, at the home of her son, Harry L. Haigler, two miles west of Bigelow, with the members of her family living here. She enjoyed a regular birthday dinner. Her three children now with her, Mary, Harry and John W., her two grandchildren, Russell and Frankie; her daughter, Jennie, the wife of Geo. W. Hinkle, living in Leamore, Calif., was the only child not here on this occasion. Her only living sister, Mrs. Virginia Whobrey and daughters, Doris, of Mound City, and Mrs. Geo. Trook, of Los Angeles, Calif., were present to enjoy the day with her. Mrs. Haigler's parents were Joseph and Mary Ferguson, natives of Kentucky. She was born in Jackson county, Kentucky, within six miles of Lexington, Kentucky, on a farm. She came with her parents to Franklin county, Mo., at an early age, and was married to John W. Haigler, February 27, 1861. They came to Joint county the following March by boat and settled on the old Haigler homestead, which Mr. Haigler's mother had entered in 1845. In 1869 they built a fine brick house, now the home of John C. Hinkle. She lived there until the spring of 1884. This farm originally consisted of 400 acres or more. From 1881 to 1883 the farm was washed into the Missouri river, with the exception of about 50 acres, where the house now stands. They sold what was left to Dr. J. I. Minton, who later on sold it to John C. Hinkle, the present owner. They then moved to a farm they had purchased, four miles northwest of Mound City. Here she lived until April, 1909, then moving to Mound City, where she lived until 1915. Since the death of her son Harry's wife, she has made her home with him, and the entire family is together, with the exception of her daughter, Jennie, in California. Her husband died in November, 1907, and she has been tenderly cared for by her children, who are very devoted to her, she having been an invalid for several years. She is a true and Christian mother and a good neighbor.

—Mrs. Dan Hogan and daughter, Miss Celia, who have been visiting with Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Hogan for several days, returned to their home in Farley, Iowa, the latter part of last week.

—A large crowd from Mound City accompanied Brothers Burke and Hobbs over to the noon train, last Monday, to see them safely on their way to Kansas City. Many songs were sung before the arrival of the train, and the good old-time song, "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," was sung as the train pulled out of the station.

—Mrs. L. Riley, who has been visiting with her granddaughter, Mrs. A. M. Drake and family, in Laredo, Mo., for several days, returned home, last Monday afternoon.

—Mrs. Anna Kahn left the first of the week for Seattle, Wash., where she will spend the summer months visiting with her daughter, Mrs. M. D. Barash.

—Ben Galbraith and wife, who years ago lived on the Rowlett ranch west of town, are in the neighborhood, visiting with old-time friends, this week.

—Attend the ice cream social, given by the Epworth League, Friday evening, July 13.

New Telephone Line.

Owing to the increase of business between Oregon and Maitland, the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Co., of Maitland, has been contemplating the construction of a free, independent, toll line between the two places, whereby the citizens of both towns could secure service directly, without calling any intermediate points.

Consequently last Saturday, L. A. Iddings, president; Ed Kneale, vice-president; and J. H. Fickes, secretary of the Maitland company, conferred with the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Company, of Oregon, and plans were adopted mutually for the construction of such line in the near future. This is an improvement that will be appreciated by the business interests of both towns.

M. E. Church Notes.

Regular services next Sunday morning. Prayer meeting and choir practice Thursday evening.

The union services will be held in the Evangelical church next Sunday evening. The Alliance cordially invites everybody. Strangers in our city will find the Evangelical church one block north and one block west of the post office.
